NEW YORK, November 20, 2026 — Melar Acquisition Corp. I (Nasdaq: MACI) ("Melar") and Everli Global Inc. ("Everli"), the multi-retailer online grocery marketplace that brings Italy's favorite supermarkets to customers' phones and front doors, today announced the completion of their previously announced business combination. The transaction closed today, November 20, 2026.

In connection with the closing, Melar changed its name to Everli Global Holdings, Inc. (the "Company"). The Nasdaq Stock Market LLC ("Nasdaq") has approved the listing of the Company's Class A common stock and warrants on the Nasdaq Global Market, where they are expected to begin trading on Monday, November 23, 2026, under the ticker symbols "EVRL" and "EVRLW," respectively. Melar's units, Class A ordinary shares and warrants will cease trading under "MACIU," "MACI" and "MACIW," respectively, at the close of market today. Outstanding units will be automatically separated into their component Class A common stock and warrants of the Company, and no units will trade on Nasdaq following the closing.

Additional details regarding the closing will be included in a Current Report on Form 8-K to be filed by the Company with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC").

About Everli

Everli is a leading e-grocery marketplace and delivery platform in Italy. Founded in 2014, Everli connects consumers with their preferred grocery retailers through its online platform and a network of over one thousand weekly active independent shoppers who shop and deliver each order end to end, having served millions of Italian households. Everli's asset-light model gives retailers a fully outsourced e-commerce channel built on their existing store footprint. For more information, visit www.everli.com.
